

Things we will not accept at She-Sale Consignment

- ~Clothing or bedding that smells smoky or have odors
- ~Items that are stained, ripped, torn or too "loved"
- ~Socks, lingerie or swimsuits that are not new
- ~Pajamas or bathrobes that are not new
- ~Items that are out of date (we realize this can be subjective, so do not be offended if we turn something away if it is out of date! Give your old suits with shoulder pads to charity)
- ~Large furniture – At this time we will not be taking couches, beds, table sets or any large furniture. We may sell this category in the future, but not to start.
- ~Kitchen gadgets
- ~Random household items or tools (sorry this is not a garage or a flea sale!)
- ~If you have any questions about items, please email us at info@shesaleconsignment.com and ask!

Please help us keep this a quality consignment event!
